IN DEDICATION TO:

Dottie Sjostrom

"Dottie was always my "go-to" person at Bay High. I still look behind me while standing in the hall expecting to see Dottie. She was such a huge part of Bay High that she is missed each and every day." -Stacey Pate

"My first semester here I will never forget you getting upset with me for taking students out of your class to take a drug survey. After all, I was only doing as I was instructed to do. I soon came to understand that the only reason was because you were so passionate about making certain each and every child you were responsible for academically had the needed "tools" required to achieve their goals. I never saw you give anything less than 100% to each and every one of your students. For such a petite lady, you have left big shoes to fill! Best of wishes in this next phase of life!" -Jane

"Dottie is an amazing person who we were blessed to have as an educator and advocate for our students at Bay High School for a number of years. She was the type of educator that we love here at BHS. She was dedicated, passionate, compassionate, loving and serious about her students and impacting their lives. I'm so glad we are able to honor her in this way and miss her presence on campus since her retirement." -Dr. Amy Coyne

"It's just not the same without you being here Dottie.....we miss you!!!" -Elizabeth Bosarge

"We love you Dottie! Dottie was the type of teacher that you could always depend on. Everything was by the 'rules' and we better find out the answer if there were any questions!! LOL – And, the vending machines better have those little vanilla cookies, or we were in TROUBLE!" -Michelle Henry

"Ms. Sjostrom was an asset to Bay High and a blessing to the children she taught. She always gave 100%, which kids learned to appreciate as she taught them from bell to bell. She was not just a great teacher but a good employee as well. She never missed a duty, turned lesson plans in on time (even when that meant giving up her weekend time) and contributed her thoughtful input on many issues. She was a second 'mama' to many students and some adults as well. Enjoy your well earned retirement. Your presence at Bay High will be missed." -Ann Lathrop

"You are missed by all, but I know you are enjoying your retirement!! I am loving your chair and podium!" -Brandy Schruff

Miss BHS

Isabelle Garza

Isabelle is a true example of a well rounded and fabulous young lady. She has a beautiful soul and a positive spirit.

Bay High is grateful for the contributions that she makes to this school each day and has been blessed to have her.

Isabelle says she is very honored and humbled to receive the award of Miss BHS. She stated that BHS instills excellence, determination, and spirit in its students. She is very thankful to have spent her high school years with students who uphold true values and to be a student of teachers who inspire her. Isabelle says it is difficult for her to choose a favorite memory from the four years she has spent here at BHS. One memory that stood out to her is the time she spent with the Mississippi Youth Legislature. Youth Leg greatly impacted her as a person and she will always cherish the memories and friendships made there.

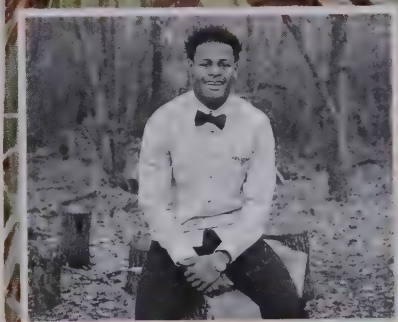

Her mom has been her inspiration through high school. She says her mom's strength through obstacle inspires her to never give up when life gets difficult.

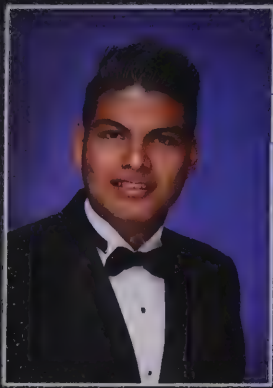

Mister BHS

Jaylan Wilson

Jaylan is the epitome of a well rounded student! He gives his all in class on on the field and court. He is a natural leader and is destined for greatness. He is such a mumerable and humble young man. He is always willing to help his fellow peers and the younger youth. He always has a smile on his face no matter when you see him.

Jaylan says that receiving the Mr. BHS award means so much to him. He says it shows him that he is supported and loved by his school. Being loved by the school is one of the best feelings ever and he would like to thank everyone for him receiving this award. Jaylan's favorite memory from high school is the celebration for being an "A" school. This was his favorite memory because everyone was happy and having fun. It was nice to see everyone coming together to have a good time. Jaylan's coaches have been his inspiration through his high school years. He says that they taught him to believe and to never give up. They pushed him to become the person he is today. He wants to extend a huge thank you to all of his coaches for inspiring him.

"We grew up in a volleyball setting together. Playing with her since my seventh grade year, on varsity, was a wonderful experience. We got to watch each other make stupid mistakes, but we also witnessed each other grow better in every aspect of the sport. She helped me, and I helped her. We always kept each other laughing. So, for this to be the last year of me being able to play on the court with her, is somewhat emotional. I definitely miss 'Li Mea'. She definitely is my sister and I wish her well after high school."

HOME

Game, Parade, Pep Rally!!

The Homecoming banner competition is a fun tradition. Each grade level designs a banner to express creativity to mock "the Cougars". This year the class of 2020 took the win by creating the best banner.

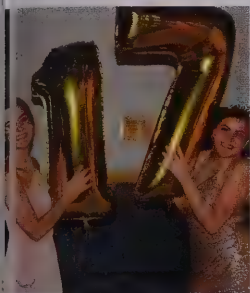

No matter winning or losing, Spirit Club tries to keep the fans pumped up and the other teams score down.

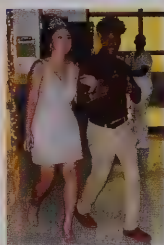

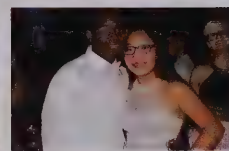

"It was one of the greatest games that I have ever been a part of. To come back from 26 points down and almost win is amazing!!" -Coach Forman

COMING

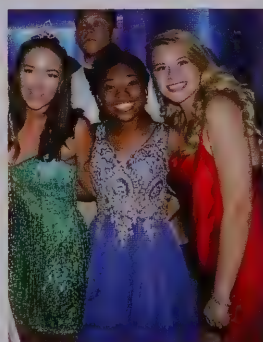

Dance

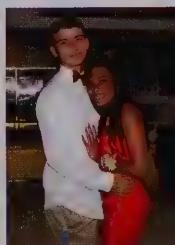

"One of the best Homecomings yet."
-Allie DuPont

"Bay High you rock my socks!! Thank you for this."
Daley Bell

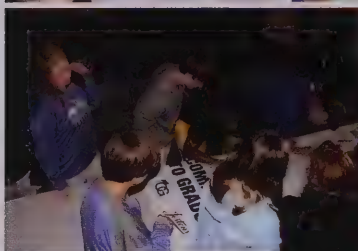

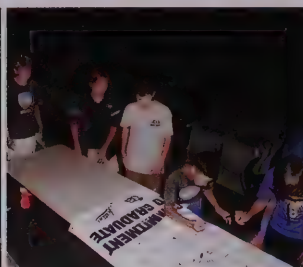

"The Homecoming Dance was a fun night filled with amazing memories to last a lifetime."
-Kaitlyn Chiasson

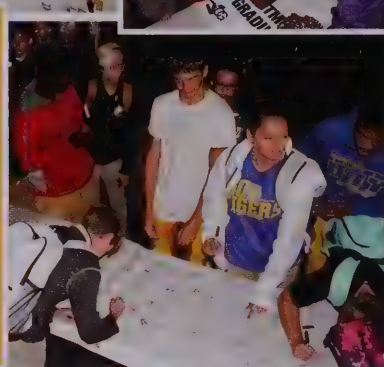

"Homecoming is a great way to get dressed up with your friends and have a good time. I can't wait til next year!!"-Lauren-Anne Lagasse

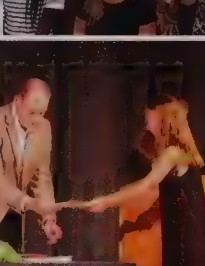

Student Life and Fall Activities

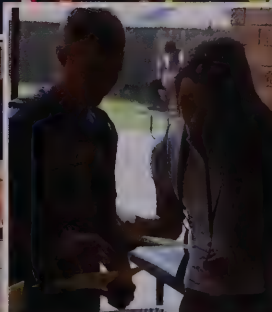

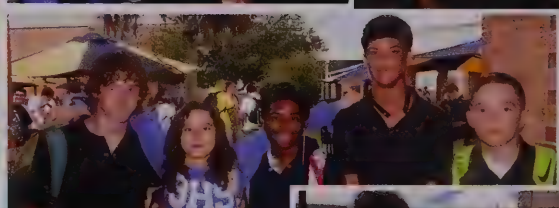

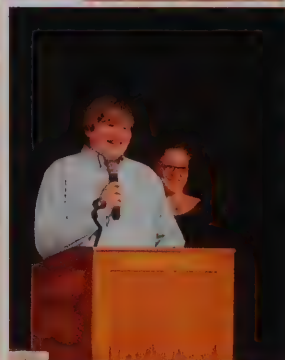

Each year the incoming freshmen sign a banner saying that they are committing to graduate. The banners hang in the courtyard until each class graduates.

Students always look sharp, but nervous on the first day of school! They're always excited to reunite with friends and teachers.

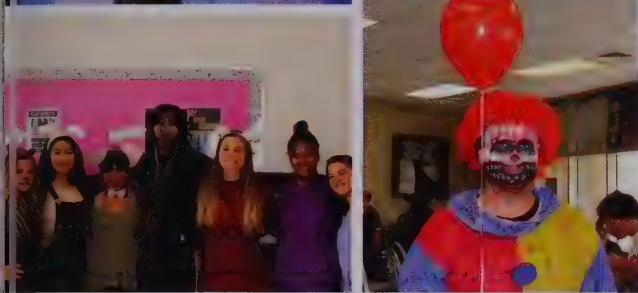

The Junior Class Ring Ceremony is put on by Jostens and the Junior Class Sponsors to distribute class rings and/or bracelets to the students at the beginning of the year.

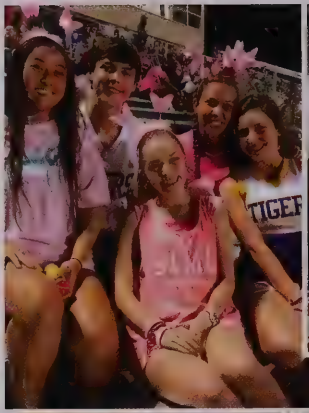

One day each year at lunch teachers and faculty encourage students to break the status quo and not sit next to your friends but to sit by someone you have never talked to or someone you do not know because we all need to get along. This day is great because not only do you get to know someone you didn't know but it also teaches students that you can have a conversation with someone without a phone and that just because you don't have someones snapchat or instagram or even their phone number doesn't mean you can't have a conversation or become friends with that person.

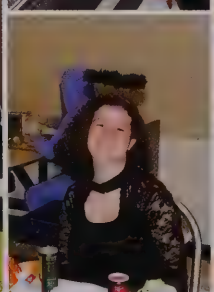

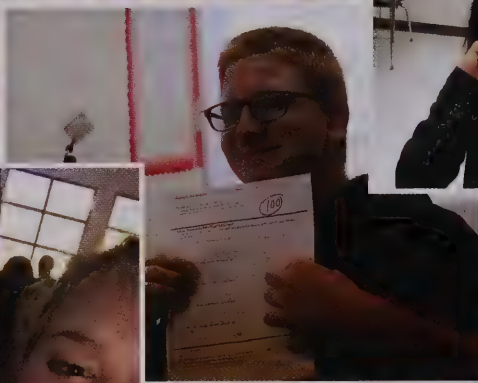

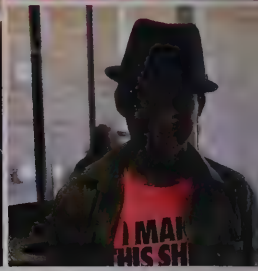

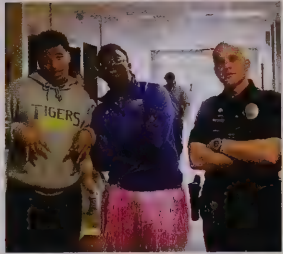

What started out as the annual R.O.A.R rally for students quickly changed. A week before the R.O.A.R. rally our teachers and students and faculty got the news that we were now ranked an "A" school so instead of having a celebration for the students who were in roar the first nine weeks we had a celebration for all students since everyone of the students contributed to being ranked an "A" school. This is the second time in BHS history to be ranked an "A" school.

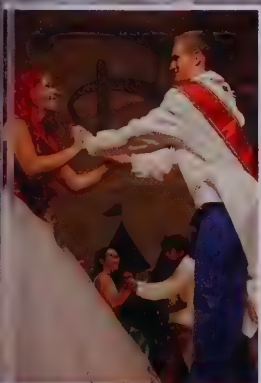

Every year at a football game in October we wear pink in support for the people with breast cancer.

You are the reason I am still standing strong and proud. You are a blessing in my life and the restart I needed. You made it easy to make the right choices in life and you did it all before saying "Dada". You have become the beautiful, loving, caring, intelligent, and thoughtful daughter I knew you would be. I'm excited to see what the future holds for you. You know DADDY will be here for you to guide you as you have for me. I love you baby girl forever and always.

Love, Dad

Since the day you were born, I adored your smile. I cherished your hugs. I admired your heart. You have grown into an amazing young woman, who I will love forever and always. Congratulations my baby girl! I'm honored to be your mother! I look forward to seeing you grow even more as you follow your dreams and heart to a bright successful future.

Dear Sydney,
How can it be that just four short years ago you were beginning your high school journey? Now we are on the verge of yet another milestone, only this milestone isn't about just growing up, it's about being grown-up.

High school wasn't always easy. Let's be honest: It was downright painful sometimes. You entered a different person you are leaving and your scars prove it. Scars are beautiful battle wounds; they remind you what you have overcome and how incredibly strong you are for coming out healed.

We are full of excitement and wonder for you, our hearts are overflowing with pride for the incredibly beautiful and brilliant woman you have turned into. You might not know what the future holds, but we are pretty sure we can make a few predictions. You will continue to soar, grow, stay true to who you are, and continue to treat others with kindness. As you follow your dreams, life will take a lot of twists and turns, but if you keep believing in yourself you will accomplish all your goals.

Remember you always have a choice. No matter what the situation. Be brave enough to say I'm sorry, or I love you, or I forgive you. Embrace the adventure you are on and enjoy every minute.

We are proud of you and we love you with all our hearts,
always, forever, and ever!

Bug-

There are no words for just how very PROUD we are
of the beautiful,
kind, intelligent
young lady you have become & we can't wait to see what your future holds! Keep
The Lord in your heart
& there is nothing that
you can't accomplish!
You are so very loved my girl...always remember that!

Love-

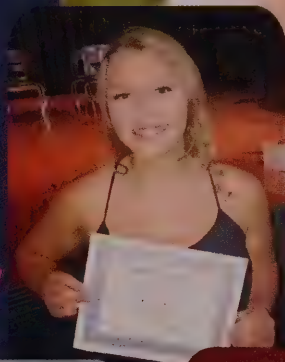

Mamma, Luke & Soso

You are altogether
beautiful, my love,
there is no flaw in
you.

It has been an amazing 18 years and it has flown by. It feels like in a blink of an eye that you transformed from my sweet little girl to the beautiful young woman you are today. You have always been and will always be our sweet girl no matter where you go or what you do in the future. As you turn this next page in life and journey wherever God wants you to be, always know that we love you more than you can ever comprehend. Love, Mae, Mae Pappy, Michelle & Gang, and Meemaw.

You have become the wonderful woman I envisioned from the first time I held you in my arms. We have faced troubles and trials through our life together but we have always pushed through together. Just know that you will always have me as a father, friend, and guardian for as long as I live. -Dad
